The inscription on his (Bernhard. Jacob Rex) tombstone in the Old Heidelberg Cemetery states that; by his marriage with Anna Elizabeth Arner, he had eleven children and was survived. by 55 grandchildren and 12 great-grandchildren

The Rex family were among the earliest settlers of Washington Township, Lehigh Co. They came originally from Germany, but had, prior to their appearance here, been for several years residents of Germantown. Locating in the northern part of Washington Township along Trout creek, they became in a short time the largest land-owners in that region. Jacob Rex, in 1752, built a stone house, which is still standing and owned by Stephen Rex, son of George and grandson of the builder. A stone set in the wall bears the inscription "Anno 1752 J. R. M.S. He was born in 1724, Married Elizabeth Arner in May 16, 1746, lived in matrimony 36 years and died in 1782 leaving 11 children, 55 grandchildren and 12 great grandchildren.
