

P.S. - I got the job!

Dear grandma - don't this a lovely card? a friend gave me a set of them for Christmas. The holidays were very nice. I sang in the choir for midnight mass. On Christmas day we had a big brunch, opened presents, and later went to the clifford's for dinner and singing. I was interviewed for a job on Monday, but I won't know for several days whether or not I'll be hired. I would be working as a "Forest Maintenance Laborer" for the Seattle Water Dept., in North Bend (up in the mountains!) It would be a fantastic job, so I've got my fingers crossed! I'm definitely going back to school in the fall, to Western University. My plans are to get a B.S. in Environmental Studies. Everything else is going very well. I'm finally used to being back. I'm keeping busy - cooking a lot, jogging visiting friends - I've met a nice fellow I hope to be spending more time with. I hear it's freezing back there - it's hard to imagine, because here it's warm & sunny (very unusual winter weather).

I hope it warms up soon for you; I'm sure it's not very pleasant. I hope you're doing well; say hello to Barbara, Carrie, etc. for me.

Love,
Karen
