

Dearest Grandma - I'm sitting now on a rock in the sun, perched on a high cliff above the ocean on the western most point in Europe! It is lovely! This country is very green, and the people are very friendly. Still dress & live in traditional ways. Food is wonderful. Very fresh, and lots of fish. This monastery was breath taking. The colors of the stained glass windows were so rich they looked like velvet. I love the old castles and buildings.

I spent yesterday at the ocean on the beach in the sun. Even went swimming! I am having a wonderful time - no problems at all as far as being a girl alone. Everyone is very kind to me. I will see you in a couple months on my way back home -

Lots of love Karen

Dear Grandma - This postcard is the place where a very famous is buried. He wrote the book Zorba the Greek, and the Greek people are very proud of him. He is buried on the island of Crete, where I spent many weeks. It is extremely beautiful there, mountainous and many varieties of wildflowers and birds. On Friday I leave Amsterdam. Then I will go to Paris and in early November I will be in New York. I can't wait to see everyone! Mom sent me pictures of her trip to N.Y. - she had such a wonderful time!

Dear Grandma, Now I'm in Belgium. Now in a small town called Brugge. you would love it!
It's a quaint old Flemish town with lots of canals,
parks and little old beautiful houses. Famous for its handmade lace.
I will be going next to visit Susan Clifford (our neighbor - Donna's daughter) in Germany. Then to Paris and London - I'll be in New York in mid-November.
