

Rising Minds Cultural Homestay Program

Host Mom: Micaela Veronica Bizarro, 29

Education: 1 year. ADMVI Weaving cooperative founder and member

Dreams: To give a good education to my children.

Family Personality: The family is outgoing, funny, and open. There are always many family members and children around. They are interested in sharing information about the local weaving and coffee cooperatives, cooking, and talking to visitors.

“I want to do homestays to share the culture and language of Tz’utujil with foreigners and get to know them better.”

-Micaela

Household: Mother Maria Marta (47), stay-at-home mom and weaver; Father Lucas Bizarro Yojcom (47), member of coffee cooperative; Brother Jorge Victor (22), Perito Contador; Brother Pedro Emanuel (19), Student; Brother Lucas Alfredo, (18), Painter; Brother Juan Edgar (14), Student; Brother Domingo (11); Daughter Juanita (11).

The house is part of a larger family compound. It is located near the center of town across from the ADMVI cooperative.

