Dear Karen and Mike,

5 June '86

I had hoped to write you a nice long letter sooner than this, but events have conspired to prevent it. I sometimes feel guilty that I don't write more often, but I know your mom and siblings are doing an excellent job. We received a letter from you the week before I left on this trip so I'm fairly well up to date. Sounds like you're having a good time and are reasonably satisfied with your accomplishments. I know you two would like to change the world for the better (wouldn't we all) but realize now that we all can do very little (better to light one candle etc). Sounds like you are accomplishing quite a bit though and the cistan idea is wonderful. I'm surprised they don't already know all about cisterns, as they are common in other areas with cyclical rainfall (aren't they?) Can you just decide on your own to embark on a project like that without P.C. approval? How do they know that you know what you're doing, for instance? A cistern is not a good example, but couldn't <sup>someone</sup> you start a project that would leave them more dependent on us than before? Anyway, it's great that you are doing things beyond your prime assignment. Is this also encouraged?

~~Then~~ I'll work on your photo related requests as soon as I get home as there won't be time to do anything before I left.

This trip was suddenly accelerated one week which gave you, your mom and me fits. I expect she'll tell you about it in her next letter. We were remodeling the main bathroom and had a comfortable amount of time to finish, with the old schedule, before a shower she is giving 2 wks from work on June 8. When the trip was moved up a week it also lost most of the Memorial Day weekend which was when most of the job was going to be done. As a result, we were up until 3 AM Sat morning putting up wallpaper and 2 AM Sunday morning putting in the vanity (a custom made one) moulding, mirror, light fixture, etc. I made the light from oak and it now spans the entire wall over the vanity / toilet with 8 bulbs. The mirror is also wall to wall and 42" high. Wallpaper on the ceiling, 2 brnts on the walls, new floor, + a custom made ceramic sink. I couldn't get the faucett installed before I had to pack and go to the airport Sunday.

Fortunately, the trip was shortened after I got just before I left so I'll be home in time to finish the job on Saturday. Phew!!!

I was in Stockholm from Monday till the following Sunday 26 May - 1 June working with SAS, then ~~to~~ went to Copenhagen for 2 days to see Mauck and Sterling Anway - 2 charter operators. Then to Yugoslavia to visit JAT and Aerogenex, then <sup>just a</sup> scheduled and the latter a charter airline. First night I flew to Vienna and was picked up at the airport by the M.D. of Tarda Air, a charter airline here owned 50% by Mike Tarda the race driver.

We went to a small restaurant in the country where we met his young wife and 5 mo old baby, their first. On the way to the hotel after dinner I tried to call mom from a radio phone in his Mercedes! Unfortunately she was at work so I didn't connect. Called her this AM to say happy birthday! As you can see I'm rushing this as I've got to check out and see the airline people shortly. Write soon'. Love Dad. (over)

Almost forgot to mention - Javda air will fly to Tomi and have offered me a free ticket.
Can't promise when it'll be able to come, but it'll try.
